BILL MARSHALL AWARDEES

2026 Emmanuel Roilides, Greece
A 25-Year Journey in Paediatric Mycology: From Bench to Bedside

2025 Irja Lutsar, Estonia
One size does not fit all: Dosing of antibiotics

2024 Fernanda Rodrigues, Portugal
Paediatric Infectious Diseases: A Clinical History

2023 Maria Tsolia, Greece
Recent advances in childhood TB and prospects for better disease control

2022 Nigel Curtis, Australia
To be or not to be (a clinician scientist in paediatric infectious diseases)

2021 Adilia Warris, United Kingdom
Fungal Enquiries

2020 Robert Cohen, France
Community-acquired infections: A continuum from carriage to serious diseases

2019 Terho Heikkinen, Finland
Viruses are hotter than ever

2018 Hermione Lyall, United Kingdom
Lessons from HIV – Can we eradicate congenital CMV?

2017 Carlo Giaquinto, Spain
Paediatric HIV: The European contribution

2016 James Cherry, United Kingdom
The Resurgence of Pertussis: Facts, Fiction, Myths and Misconceptions

2015 Ulrich Heininger, Germany
Pertussis – a never ending story?

2014 Pierre van Damme, Ireland
"The education in vaccinology" versus "Vaccinology in the education"

2013 Andrew Pollard, Italy
215 years of vaccination: job done?

2012 Andrew Cant, Greece
Of Man and Micro: The Child as the Father of the Man

2011 Steve Black, The Netherlands
Vaccine Safety and Public Confidence: A Vision for the Next Decade

BILL MARSHALL AWARDEES

2010 Jussi Mertsola, France
"Pertussis - still with us"

2009 Adam Finn, Belgium
Overloading the immature immune system.
"There is nothing either good or bad, but thinking makes it so."

2008 Ronald de Groot, Austria
Pas de trois

2007 Olli Ruuskanen, Portugal
It is not "just a respiratory virus" any more

2006 Stanley Plotkin, Switzerland
Apologia Pro Vita Sua: A Life in Vaccines

2005 Claire-Anne Siegrist, Spain
Growing Stronger in a Wild World

2004 Richard Moxon, Finland
From Mistaken Identity to Celebrity Status: a Microbial Odyssey

2003 Dominique Gendrel, France Out of Africa

2002 Milan Cizman, Solvenia
The use and resistance to antibiotics: Heterogeneity, Guidelines and ESPID

2001 Juhani Eskola, Finland
Blind squirrel and other stories – my 18 years with conjugate vaccines

2000 Michael Levin, United Kingdom
Bringing the Laboratory to the Bedside: the Paediatric Infectious Diseases Clinician Scientist in the 21st Century

1999 John D. Nelson, United Kingdom
The Fate of the Mentor: Ikarus or Phoenix?

1998 Dimitris Kafetzis, Greece
Hippocrates, the Founder of Modern Medical Thinking, is his Era Ending?

1997 Mieke Hoogkamp-Korstanje, The Netherlands
The Strongest from the Very Beginning

1996 Heikki Peltola, Finland
Privilege of Being a (Research) Orchestra Player

1995 Ron Dagan, Israel
Aspects of the Epidemiology of Gastroenteritis

BILL MARSHALL AWARDEES

1994 Jaak Vossen, The Netherlands
Management of Infections in Immunocompromised Children

1993 George H McCracken, USA
The Training of Paediatric Infectious Specialists

1992 Urs B. Schaad, Switzerland
Meningitis in Children: Management and Therapy

1991 Ruggiero D'Elia, Italy
Diagnostic Approach in Infectious Diseases

1990
Timo Vesikari, Finland
From Rubella to Rotavirus (Vaccines)

1989 Constantinos Papadatos, Greece
Medical Research in Children

1988 Claus Simon, Germany
Antibiotic Therapy in Children

1987 Pamela Davies, United Kingdom
Neonatal Bacterial Infection: Lessons from Group B Streptococcus

1986 Walter Marget, United Kingdom
Paediatric Infectious Diseases during the last 30 Years and the Future Outlook

BILL MARSHALL AWARDEES