

BIDDING GUIDELINES

FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING OF

THE EUROPEAN SOCIETY FOR PAEDIATRIC INFECTIOUS DISEASES

2021

1. INTRODUCTION

The European Society for Paediatric Infectious Diseases (ESPID) exists to promote the exchange of scientific information among people who have special interest in the field of paediatric infectious diseases. The society does so in various ways including the organisation of regular scientific meetings as well as facilitating the formation of international study groups and networks, sponsoring educational courses, awarding grants, organising symposia at other international congresses, and through joint members' publications in the Pediatric Infectious Diseases Journal and other journals. ESPID holds its main meeting on an annual basis in different European countries.
